

December 17, 2021

Structures Inc.'s Official Statement regarding Log4J:

On December 9, 2021, Apache publicly disclosed a remote code execution (RCE) vulnerability (CVE-2021-44228) in its popular Java logging library, Log4j. Upon identification of the security advisory, Structures Inc. evaluated the threat and immediately took steps to remediate any exposure. At this time, we confirm Structures Inc. has not been impacted.

As this is a fluid threat, we will continue to closely monitor our services to detect any potential impact and if necessary, we will take immediate action to address any issues that may arise.

At Structures Inc., the security of our systems and the security of our clients' data is paramount. For further information regarding Structures Inc.'s commitment to data security, please ask for our SOC 3 Report.

Structures Inc.